

Lyn R. Agre

PARTNER | SAN FRANCISCO

T: (415) 421-6140 F: (415) 398-5030
lagre@kasowitz.com

RELATED PRACTICES

Commercial Litigation
Investigations and White Collar
Defense
Employment Practices
Litigation

EDUCATION

- Golden Gate University
School of Law (J.D., 1995)
- Middlebury College (B.A., 1989)

BAR ADMISSIONS

- 1995, California

MEMBERSHIPS

- State Bar of California
- California Trial Lawyers
Association
- American Bar Association
- California Attorneys for Criminal Justice
- Women Federal
Defenders Association

Lyn R. Agre's practice focuses on federal and state white-collar criminal defense. She has represented and assisted in the representation of major corporations and individual targets and witnesses in a wide range of criminal cases including fraud, antitrust, securities, insurance, tax, healthcare, maritime, environmental, and public corruption. Lyn has tried numerous felony cases before juries during her career. She has been selected to Super Lawyers 2012-2016 and was featured as one of the 2012 "Top Women Attorneys in Northern California."

NOTABLE REPRESENTATIONS

- The former general counsel of McKesson HBOC Inc, in the widely-publicized criminal trial stemming from a 1999 securities scandal that led to $9 billion in investor losses. In the first trial the client was acquitted on all conspiracy charges, and the jury deadlocked on the remaining charges. In the retrial, the client was acquitted on all remaining charges, while other McKesson HBOC Inc. executives were convicted.
- Dr. Scott Harkonen, former Chairman and CEO of Intermune, in a federal criminal case alleging mail fraud and FDA violations arising from purported off-label marketing.
- Reliant Energy in a criminal case arising from the California energy crisis, which recently resulted in non-prosecution agreements for the both the company and certain of its officers.
- Timothy Staples, a business associate and lifelong friend of former California State Senate President Don Perata who, along with Senator Perata and others, was a target of investigations conducted first by the United States Attorney's Office in San Francisco and then by the United States Attorney's office in Sacramento. Following a grand jury and FBI investigation lasting almost five years into alleged violations of the federal honest services mail fraud statute, the United States Department of Justice announced that it had closed its investigation of with no charges being filed.

- Federal Bar Association of Northern California

- Norcal Waste Systems in a criminal case charging Norcal and the former mayor of San Jose, California with bribery and misapplication of public funds. The trial court granted Norcal's motion to dismiss all charges prior to trial.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- Lecturer, Stanford Law School, 2012-2013
- Adjunct Professor of Law, Santa Clara University School of Law, 1999-2002

GOVERNMENT SERVICE

- Deputy Public Defender, Santa Clara County, 1997-2002

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

- "The Emerging Law of Cybersecurity and Data Breach Liability," Palo Alto, CA, November 6, 2013