

Atsushi Nagano
Fukami Patent Office, p.c.

Qualification:

Japan patent attorney (2005)

Fields:

chemical, material

Education:

graduated from Osaka University, Faculty of Engineering Sciences, Department of Synthetic Chemistry (1997)

received a master's degree from the same university (1999)

Experience:

Taoka Chemical Co., Ltd. (1999-2004)

Fukami Patent Office (2005-)

Overseas training:

Birch Stewart Kolasch & Birch, LLP (US) (2012)

Mewburn Ellis (UK) (2015)

Belonged to:

the Biotechnology and Life Science Committee in the Japan Patent Attorneys Association
(2010-2011)

Mr. Nagano is a patent attorney, which is a Deputy Divisional Manager of Chemical/Biotechnology Division at Fukami Patent Office.

Mr. Nagano's practice includes all phases of patent prosecution including, preparing and prosecuting original patent applications. His focus is on a wide range of chemical and material fields, especially organic chemistry fields, including polymers, optical films, resin materials, resin compositions, fibers and adhesives.

Mr. Nagano has over 11 years of experience in the intellectual property field. Before joining Fukami Patent Office, he was a chemical researcher for Taoka Chemical Co., Ltd..