Stephen Stout, Ph.D., is a Partner in V&E's Austin office. He focuses on technology-based litigation and counseling. Stephen has helped clients at every stage of their disputes, including trial and appeal, and in a wide variety of fields, ranging from biotechnology and pharmaceuticals to digital media and computer hardware. He is an active and recognized member of the bar. He has co-authored a leading U.S. intellectual property law treatise, O'Connor's Federal Intellectual Property Codes Plus, since 2009, and co-authored three amicus briefs to the U.S. Supreme Court on behalf of the Federal Circuit Bar Association and American Bar Association. For his work, Stephen has been recognized as a Texas Rising Star each year since 2011. He is a licensed member of the State Bar of Texas and is admitted to practice in the Eastern District of Texas, Western District of Texas, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and the U.S. Supreme Court. Stephen received his Juris Doctor with honors from the University of Texas School of Law. He received his Ph.D. in Plant Biology from the University of Texas.
